Fresno Unified Seeks Substitute Teachers, Increases Daily Pay

Fresno Unified is in need of more substitute teachers to support its more than 73,000 students. As part of its substitute teacher recruiting efforts, Fresno Unified has raised the daily substitute pay to $208.04. This includes the base rate of $163.04 a day and an additional $45 a day to be prepared for simultaneous teaching.

Those interested can apply online at fresnounified.org. Applicants will need to upload a resume, transcripts, two letters of support and a substitute permit or credential. Those in need of a substitute permit should contact the Fresno County Superintendent of Schools at (559) 265-3005.

“We invite the community to play an important role in our city by becoming a substitute teacher. We would love for you to become part of the Fresno Unified family,” said Superintendent Bob Nelson.
